

ProLog Unleashed—Now at 100 Hotspot locations in 14 counties!

May 2006 Palmerton, Pa. PenTeleData's ProLog Unleashed Wi-Fi hotspot Internet access has reached over 100 hotspots in 14 counties! Launched in early 2005 with just a handful of hotspots, ProLog Unleashed has grown to 100 spots in just over a year.

ProLog Unleashed gives PenTeleData broadband subscribers the unique opportunity to connect to the Internet via wireless technology at various locations throughout PenTeleData's service area as an added benefit for being a ProLog Express subscriber. ProLog Unleashed is also available to PenTeleData dial-up subscribers as well as anyone else with the equipment necessary to utilize it.

ProLog Unleashed wireless Internet access consists of "hotspots"—areas of wireless connectivity—which provide reliable, high-speed Internet access to anyone with the correct equipment including laptops with a wireless network card installed, handheld computers with wireless capability, and other Wi-Fi (Wireless Fidelity) enabled equipment such as some cellular phones.

"When we first launched ProLog Unleashed, we had a goal of having 100 hotspots up and running within the first year. Today, we've accomplished just that," says Dean Hosier, Director of Marketing at PenTeleData, "We're now have 100 hotspots in 14 counties throughout our service area, and we're very proud to have reached that goal while further enhancing our ProLog Express broadband customers experience by expanding their mobility and accessibility with ProLog Unleashed as an included feature of their high-speed Internet service from PenTeleData and our partners."

ProLog Unleashed is free for ProLog Express Broadband Internet customers—ProLog Express is available through PenTeleData's cable and telephone company partners including: Blue Ridge Communications, Service Electric Cable TV & Communications, Service Electric Company, Service Electric Cablevision, CATV Service Inc., Ironton Telephone and Palmerton Telephone.

ProLog Unleashed also offers wireless users a unique outdoor Wi-Fi experience—with outdoor hotspot locations in the Palmerton Borough Park, Jim Thorpe, Wilkes-Barre, Kutztown Borough and coming soon to Dorney Park & Wildwater Kingdom in the summer of 2006!
